Estimating sizes of key populations: guide for HIV programming in countries of the Middle East and North Africa

HIV and young people who sell sex

HIV and young people who sell sex – Technical brief | Arabic

HIV and men who have sex with men

HIV and young men who have sex with men – Technical brief | Arabic

HIV and transgender people

HIV and young transgender people – Technical brief | Arabic

HIV and injecting drug use

HIV and young people who inject drugs – Technical brief | Arabic

Evidence for action

WHO has reviewed the scientific evidence for the effectiveness of the key components of the comprehe

Reduction of HIV transmission among people who inject drugs, please visit the "Evidence for action" series web page at

Best practices in strengthening the role of civil society organizations in delivering

Best practices in HIV/AIDS prevention among injecting drug abusers, the triangular clinic

HIV prevention among injecting drug users in the Islamic Republic of Iran: a review