

CORONAVIRUS DISEASE (COVID-19): protecting the vulnerable

Between 01 and 30 June 2020, with support of WHO:

806
health workers trained on surveillance, case management and risk communication

443 822
households visited by the community health workers for case finding

3 600
sample collection kits distributed to all federal member states

3 327
community health workers deployed for case finding and contact tracing

2 582
samples tested in three designated laboratories

73
rapid response teams deployed for field investigation and sample collection

384
samples transported and shipped from inaccessible areas

126
alerts of COVID-19 investigated

100
new health facilities added to the EWARN

10
isolation centers supported for patient care

3 296
suspected cases investigated

24
new risk communication messages developed and distributed

Our operational response to COVID-19 is supported by:

