

CORONAVIRUS DISEASE (COVID-19): protecting the vulnerable

Between 01 and 31 May 2020, with support of WHO:

2 938
health workers trained on surveillance, case management and risk communication

318 338
households visited by the community health workers for case finding

1 163
sample collection kits distributed to all federal member states

3 346
community health workers deployed for case finding and contact tracing

2 567
samples tested in three designated laboratories

65
rapid response teams deployed for case investigation

1 604
samples transported and shipped from inaccessible areas

325
alerts of COVID-19 investigated

41
new health facilities added to the EWARN

15
isolation centers supported for patient care

2 193
suspected cases investigated

20
new risk communication messages distributed

Our operational response to COVID-19 is supported by: