

CORONAVIRUS DISEASE 2019 (COVID-19): protecting the vulnerable

Between 01 and 30 June 2021, with support of WHO:

1 840

community health workers deployed for case finding and contact tracing

18 781

households visited by community health workers (CHWs) for case finding

1 262 199

individuals reached by CHWs with risk communication messages

21 260

suspected cases investigated for COVID-19

2 519

COVID-19 alerts investigated by district rapid response teams

18 741

samples tested for COVID-19

1 946

people vaccinated with first dose of COVID-19 vaccines

77 671

people vaccinated with second dose of COVID-19 vaccines

194

CHWs trained in surveillance, case management or infection prevention and control

308

health centres visited by rapid response teams for supportive supervision

7

treatment centres supported for patient care

10 000

face masks distributed to federal member states

10 000

gloves distributed to federal member states

2 500

PCR tests distributed to designated laboratories

15 500

Ag-based tests distributed for COVID-19 tests in remote locations

Our operational response to COVID-19 is supported by:

ITALIAN AGENCY FOR DEVELOPMENT COOPERATION

United Nations CERF

Central Emergency Response Fund

Canada

The Global Fund

THE WORLD BANK

