

The “Early Implementation Phase” of the IMCI strategy was completed in Afghanistan in October 2004 and the experience was formally reviewed in collaboration with WHO in December 2004. Since then, IMCI implementation has been expanding at a fast speed in the first 6 months of 2005, with IMCI training provided to health providers of almost a third of outpatient health facilities in the country. Many partners are involved in this effort.

Thursday 16th of May 2024 05:40:52 PM