

Saudi Arabia carried out its first national IMCI training course using the country adaptation of the clinical guidelines, from 27 February to 10 March 2005. This national course had participants from 5 regions in the country and aimed to build the capacity for training in those regions (course for facilitators)

Thursday 16th of May 2024 03:21:20 PM