

guidelines were first introduced, new evidence has become available from research, including studies coordinated by the Department of Child and Adolescent IMCI. Since the Health and Development (CAH/HQ), which has led to new IMCI recommendations. The updates concern the management of pneumonia, diarrhoeal diseases, malaria, ear infections and helminthiasis, and infant feeding.

Thursday 16th of May 2024 12:50:45 AM