

27 May 2012 – A workshop on tuberculosis (TB) operational researc 16 TB officers attended the workshop on operations research methodology and proposal development methodology and proposal development was held in Khartoum from 20 to 24 May 2012.

	П
The workshop	p $\sqcup$ aimed to develop protocols add	Iroccina the challenges feeing [	FR control and strangthen the	recearch conneity of the	notional TR control programma
THE WOLKSHO	p = aimed to develop protocols au	ii essing the chancinges facing .	i di conti oi anu su enginen inc	rescaren capacity or the	national 1 D control programme.

Twenty-six surveillance and research officers from the national TB control programme and TB partners from different regions were trained on research methodology and proposal development.

Participants drafted protocols on the following topics:

validating the diagnosis of smear negative and extra-pulmonary TB cases innovative interventions to reduce defaulting from treatment for TB patients

 $a\ pilot\ study\ of\ the\ impact\ of\ the\ WHO\ web-based\ TB\ surveillance\ system\ tool\ on\ TB\ notification\ from\ public\ and\ private\ providers.$

The workshop was facilitated by Professor Aime De Muynck, Professor of Epidemiology, Institute of Tropical Medicine, Antwerp, Belgium
Saturday 17th of May 2025 04:21:20 A