

Trainees receive instruction from EMERGENCY staff (Photo: Simon van Woerden/WHO Sudan).

Salam Centre for Cardiac From 25 February to 1 March 2018, a total of 30 workshop participants learned about the finer details of dealing with mass casualty incidents at the - such as large Surgery traffic accidents, explosions, or anything else that overwhelms the need of available medical services.

" gave lectures, exercises, and on the last day organized a simulation giving participants a hands-on EMERGENCY With support from WHO, trainers from the Italian NGO " experience using all their new knowledge and skills. Participants learned about planning, preparedness, triage, quick life-saving techniques, and more.

The maining for the second second

inticat Sout

ideticu

ih hia a