

WHO encourages ministries of health and other stakeholders to share their experiences in designing, developing and delivering priority benefits packages
The Regional Office is establishing a virtual network of all stakeholders to share practical lessons learned, including successes and failures highlight challenges:
build capacities
Saturday 26th of April 2025 04:16:46 AM