

Eastern Mediterranean Region Countries which have already started vaccination campaign against Pandemic (H1N1) influenza

Country	Date vaccination campaign started	First priority population groups selected for vaccination
Oman	26/10/2009	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hajj Pilgrims • Health Care Workers • Essential services • Pregnant Women • All Patient with Chronic Diseases • Children from 6 Months - 2 Years • Children from 2 - 6 Years • Children from 6 - 18 years • Healthy Adults above 18 Years
Kuwait	01/11/2009	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hajj pilgrims • School children
Morocco	01/11/2009	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hajj pilgrims
Qatar	3/11/2009	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hajj pilgrims • All school children and college students • All children 6 months to 5 years of age who do not attend schools • Health-care workers • Pregnant women • All people with chronic underlying medical and health conditions • Young adults
Bahrain	07/11/2009	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hajj pilgrims • Health-care workers
Saudi Arabia	07/11/2009	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Health-care workers • Domestic pilgrims for Hajj • Hajj workers in Mecca and Medina

Country	Date vaccination campaign started	First priority population groups selected for vaccination
Egypt	07/11/2009	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hajj pilgrims • School children
UAE	09/11/2009	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hajj pilgrims • Pregnant women • Children and adolescents between 6 months to 18 year old • People between 25-64 years with existing chronic health condition • Health-care workers • University students
Jordan	20/11/2009	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hajj pilgrims; • Women in the third trimester of their pregnancy,; • Children between six months and three years of age; • People suffering from kidney failure; • People with severe asthma;