Health emergencies update

21 – 27 July 2017

Regional and country news

Scaling up measles outbreak response in Somalia

The life and death struggle against cholera in Yemen

USAID support ensures key medicines for 2 million Sudanese

More news

WHO urgently appealing for US$20 million to respond to growing crisis in north-east Syria

WHO shipment of polio vaccines supports vaccination campaigns in Deir-ez-Zor and Ar-Raqqa

WHO/UNICEF Situation Report #6 cVDPV2 outbreak Syria, 25 July 2017

Power outages, restrictions on movement and imports bringing Gaza health sector 'to its knees'

Yemen cholera outbreak epidemiology bulletin #48, 27 July 2017

Yemen cholera outbreak situation report, 17 July 2017

Humanitarian updates

Statement by UNICEF Executive Director, WFP Executive Director and WHO Director-General following their joint visit to Yemen

OCHA Somalia drought response situation report #15, 24 July 2017

OCHA Mosul Humanitarian Overview, 22 July 2017

Funding for emergencies

57% funding gap for WHO
US$ 213 million received or firmly pledged out of US$ 493 million* required in nine appeals for the Eastern Mediterranean Region (as of 27 July 2017)
New funding this week:
Sudan
New contribution from the Sudan Humanitarian Fund
Syria
New contribution from Qatar Charity
*Funding requested may fluctuate from week to week based on ongoing reviews of funding needs
WHO Health Emergencies Programme, Eastern Mediterranean Region
To subscribe, unsubscribe or for more information: emrgowhenews@who.int
Sunday 27th of April 2025 04:05:47 AM