

© World Health Organization 2010

This fact sheet examines tobacco taxation in the Eastern Mediterranean Region. It discusses: how higher taxes on tobacco products provide significant financial and health benefits; the various types of taxation regimes; the importance of adopting appropriate taxation policies; tobacco industry arguments against higher taxation; and best practices around the world in reviewing tobacco taxation policies and how to move forward at regional level.

Wednesday 8th of May 2024 04:31:28 AM