

Table 3 Detailed responses of the randomly selected households in the third pilot phase of the BEI-PSY survey, Beirut, 2012

Description	Code^a	No. of households	Eligibility
Field workers could not access the building	3.1	9	Unknown eligibility
No one opened the door	3.2	86	Unknown eligibility
Only the helper was present in the house	3.3	6	Unknown eligibility
Field workers could not tell whether the household was an applicable case as the parents refused before hearing any explanation about the study	3.4	9	Unknown eligibility
Field workers could not tell whether the household was qualified: The household residents only come in the summer	3.5	1	Unknown eligibility
The selected apartment was an office (non-residential unit)	4.1	15	Not eligible
The house was inhabited, but there was no qualified adolescent in the specified age range	4.2	139	Not eligible
The households did not qualify: households still under construction	4.3	6	Not eligible
Partial interview and asked to come back later to complete it	1.2	1	Incomplete
Partial interview and asked not to come back later	1.3	1	Refusal
The selected child was not available at the time of the interview	2.2	4	Non-response
The parents were not available at home at the time of the interview	2.3	10	Non-response
The parents refused before hearing any explanation about the study although the household was an applicable case	2.1.1	11	Refusal
The parents refused after hearing some explanation about the study although the household was an applicable case	2.1.2	11	Refusal
The child refused to participate	2.1.3	1	Refusal

^aDefinition of codes in Figure 1