Interviews recorded, transcribed in Urdu and then translated into English

Representing and visualizing the data

Tindings of the study compared with existing research to verify and identify new findings

Tindings of the study compared with existing research to verify and identify new findings

Code number allocated to each transcript to maintain anonymity

Describing, classifying and interpreting the data into codes and themes