

Donor contributions make it possible for WHO to develop its programmes and provide technical support to Member States. During humanitarian emergencies, donor and partner contributions facilitate technical support, provision of medical supplies and coordination of services. To continue our work and to increase our capacity, resource mobilization is vital.

Learn more about current regional appeals

Saturday 17th of May 2025 11:45:41 AM