

Nabi, who was hit by shrapnel in Helmand province, receives treatment at a WHO-supported emergency surgical hospital for war victims in Lashkar Gah
June highlights

- Active fighting between government forces and anti-government elements resulted in population movements in the Kot district of Nangarhar province in which 251 families were displaced.
- 2 major blast incidents caused more than 100 casualties in Kabul in June.
- Crimean–Congo haemorrhagic fever and measles outbreaks were on the rise this month.
- The number of reported malaria cases has increased in the first half of 2016.

Emergency humanitarian action bulletin, June 2016

Sunday 18th of May 2025 03:38:56 AM