

Data analysis from a pilot study on hydrocarbon poisoning supported by the Regional Office is progressing as scheduled and a draft algorithm for the outpatient management of hydrocarbon poisoning in children under five at primary health care level is expected to be ready for validation by the end of June 2005

Tuesday 30th of April 2024 10:23:24 AM