

The new item "Data and statistics" has been added to the CAH website. This new section currently contains information on under-five mortality and its causes and useful links to information on key child health indicators by country. It also shows the link to data on IMCI implementation in countries in the Region and presents on one page results of follow-up visits and surveys on health provider skills and health system support after IMCI training in countries of the Region.

Friday 19th of April 2024 09:07:54 PM