

Photo credit: Mr Shehatta Abdel Shahid The food and chemical safety programme in the Eastern Mediterranean Region provides technical support to Member States in:

- addressing food and chemical safety issues through capacity-building
- training food and chemical safety professionals in specialized issues
- facilitating information exchange
- preparing and disseminating consumer education materials
- supporting the development and updating of legislation and standards.

Saturday 17th of May 2025 11:51:50 AM