

The Regional Office for the Eastern Mediterranean organized an intercountry meeting on health education in Cairo, Egypt, from 3 to 6 May 2010. Participants included health education focal points from 19 countries of the Region. The objectives of the meeting were to discuss and endorse a proposed regional health education strategic plan and develop draft country plans of action to strengthen health education.

Saturday 17th of May 2025 09:54:42 PM