

In June 2020, the number of cases of COVID-19 continued to rise in countries of WHO's Eastern Mediterranean Region. WHO trained health workers and equipped health facilities to meet the growing challenge.

See highlights from June.

1 / 7

In the Gaza Strip, WHO supported 2 simulation exercises to strengthen the ability of emergency medical services teams to respond to COVID-19. 2 / 7

To support Yemen's fragile health system, WHO delivered 43 tons of medical supplies to Sana'a and Aden for onward distribution to hospitals and laboratories across the country. 3 / 7

3

WHO airlifted 85 tons of medical supplies from Iraq to northeast Syria in mid-June. 4 / 7

With support from WHO, Jordan's Ministry of Health continued to supply medications to patients at home during the pandemic. 5 / 7

In Pakistan, community mobilizers tell communities how to protect themselves from the virus.

6 / 7

to ensure the WHO works medical supplies to fight COVID-19 and the country's health ministry in Afghanistan. WHO sent medical supplies to Kabul and Sanjiz, processed medicines and other