

A multicountry expert workshop to strengthen core capacity requirements for implementation of the IHR at ground crossings was conducted jointly by the Regional Offices for Europe and the Eastern Mediterranean in Turkmenistan in June 2013. The workshop aimed to exchange experiences among neighbouring countries in central Asia, the Caucasus and WHO Eastern Mediterranean Region on IHR core capacity development at points of entry with a specific focus on ground crossings and to identify additional needs of support.

Related links

IHR core capacities

Saturday 4th of May 2024 09:48:34 AM