A Regional IHR stakeholders' meeting was held in Rabat, Morocco in November 2012. Representatives from ministries of health, agriculture and points of entry of all Member States in the Region; experts in different IHR capacities and donors participated in the meeting. The meeting provided a forum for review of the regional situation, identification of achievements and gaps. The meeting was also instrumental in identifying strategies and committing countries and donor support to address the gaps.

Related link

Regional stakeholders' meeting to map out the needs for implementing IHR core capacities during the extension period (2012–2014) November 2012, Morocco

Saturday 26th of April 2025 10:55:16 PM