

A subregional training workshop on diagnosis and detection of novel coronavirus was carried out from 16 and 19 September in Amman, Jordan. Virologists from national influenza centres of Afghanistan, Bahrain, Iraq, Kuwait, Syria and Yemen participated in the training. The aim of the training was to train participants on the use of real-time polymerase chain reaction (RT-PCR) technique for diagnosis and detection of MERS-CoV and to improve quality of laboratory based surveillance.

Relevant health topics

Coronavirus infections

Related links

Surveillance, forecasting and response: Outbreaks

Middle East respiratory syndrome - coronavirus \(MERS-CoV\) – update

Frequently Asked Questions on Middle East respiratory syndrome coronavirus \(MERS-CoV\)

IHR 2005: Laboratory

Health laboratory strengthening

Saturday 4th of May 2024 04:05:31 PM