

On 11 September 2013 the Ministry of Health in Iraq released a summary report on the congenital birth defects study conducted in 18 districts in Iraq. Following analysis of the findings, the Ministry will continue to make use of collected data and a detailed analysis will be published in a full report.

Congenital birth defects summary report

For more information about the study and its background please see frequently asked questions

Saturday 20th of April 2024 07:45:48 AM