Libya has initiated the implementation of the WHO's Mental Health Gap Action Programme (mhGAP). The country is currently developing a pool of master trainers to roll out the training and build up capacities of non specialists. Based on mhGAP, a six-month diploma programme has been designed and implemented. The diploma targets primary mental health care officers.

Related links

mhGAP Mental Health Gap Action Programme

mhGAP Intervention Guide

mhGAP Evidence Resource Centre

mhGAP publications

Related programmes

Mental health and substance abuse

Saturday 26th of April 2025 07:33:18 PM