

A new committee has been constituted in May 2013 for the development of the pharmacy legislation and regulations. Its work goes in parallel with the Libyan national medicines policy committee efforts in reviewing, updating and developing the national medicines policy, regulations and legislation. The committee will support the overall pharmacy administration efforts.

Related programmes

Essential medicines and pharmaceuticals

Tuesday 23rd of April 2024 02:08:20 PM