

WHO is currently supporting the Ministry of Health in assessing its current pharmaceutical situation. The outcome of the assessment will be used to target different programmes and resources including:

Essential medicines list

Pharmacy legislation and policy

Evaluation of medical supply system

Pharmacovigilance

Bioequivalence

Food and drug quality control centre

Medical supplies procurement and tendering process

Rational use of medicines

Drug registration

Updating pharmacy college curriculum

Related links

Procurement of essential medicines and supplies

Related programmes

Essential medicines and pharmaceutical policies

Thursday 25th of April 2024 08:23:43 AM