WHO is currently supporting the Ministry of Health in assessing its current pharmaceutical situation. The outcome of the assessment will be used to target different programmes and resources including:
Essential medicines list
Pharmacy legislation and policy
Evaluation of medical supply system
Pharmacovigilance
Bioequivalence
Food and drug quality control centre
Medical supplies procurement and tendering process
Rational use of medicines
Drug registration
Updating pharmacy college curriculum

Related links

Procurement of essential medicines and supplies

Related programmes

Essential medicines and pharmaceutical policies

Monday 6th of May 2024 10:57:41 AM