

Data on the leishmaniasis status for countries of the Eastern Mediterranean for the last 15 years are now also available as interactive maps and graphs in the WHO Regional Health Observatory.

The data are shown by type of disease, either cutaneous or visceral, since 1998 and a more detailed breakdown, as anthroponotic or zoonotic, is shown for the last five years.

Related links

Leishmaniasis status for countries of the Eastern Mediterranean

WHO Regional Health Observatory

Saturday 26th of April 2025 03:32:36 AM