

A training programme for Good Manufacturing Practices inspectors conducted by WHO and hosted by the Oman Pharmaceutical Products Manufacture (ZYNOVA) was held from 2 to 6 December 2012 in Salalh. Twenty-four participants from nine countries in the Eastern Mediterranean Region participated in the five-day training programme. This training is part of the WHO technical training for the Prequalification for Medicines Programme.

Related links

Good manufacturing practices

Prequalification for Medicines Programme

Friday 26th of April 2024 09:15:01 PM