A one-week WHO mission from 8 to 12 September 2012 provided technical support to the Ministry of Health of Oman on the management of iron deficiency anaemia in infants, young children and pregnant women. The mission team examined the causes of iron deficiency anaemia and provided recommendations on approaches to prevent the condition in Oman.

Wednesday 10th of April 2024 05:25:03 AM