

Three students from Oman were winners of the World Health Day 2012 art competition, the theme of which was "Ageing and health". Dr Jihane Tawilah, WHO Representative in Oman, distributed prizes and certificates of appreciation to the art competition winners in a ceremony held at the Ministry of Health premises in the presence of Dr Ali bin Jaffar bin Mohammed, Adviser for Health Affairs in the Ministry of Health and head of the national health-promoting schools team, as well as other high-level delegates from the Ministry of Education.□

Saturday 20th of April 2024 04:40:03 AM