

WHO mission staff in a meeting with health authorities to investigate the Tyno toxic cough syrup incident in 2012 which killed more than 50 people in Punjab

Group photo of WHO mission staff investigating the Tyno toxic cough syrup incident in Punjab

Participants of the essential medicine strategic workshop

Logistics support system training to members of the People's Primary Health Initiative of Sindh

Group photo of participants in logistics support system training to members of the People's Primary Health Initiative of Sindh

Group photo of participants in logistics support system training at Sindh Institute of

DHA officials and WHO staff meeting to discuss the implementation of the essential medicines system at the Punjab District Hospital, Lahore

Essential medicine staff briefing other staff on the logistics support system in Quetta

Essential medicines team checking medicine at a warehouse in Quetta

Essential medicines team checking medicine boxes at a warehouse in Quetta

Training on rational use of medicines and the logistic support system in Ziarat and Harnai

The training lasted two days and took place at the District Health Officer's office

Discussing persistent health issues and possible solutions with District Health Officer in Jafferabad, Sindh, to

Barcelista, to discuss the role of psychiatrists and the District Health Officer in Nasserabad

The WHO representative is checking the consumption and checks the available stock at the

The WHO pharmacist, responding to an alert in Pishin, Balochistan, briefing the health team on

The WHO pharmacist gives guidance on donated medicines to the pharmacist of the TB

The WHO pharmacist, responding to an alert in Pishin, Balochistan, meeting with patients

The WHO pharmacist conducting an outpatient interview

The WHO pharmacist conducting an interview with a patient

The WHO pharmacist organizing the respiratory infection medicine packages for treatment