

WHO mission staff in a meeting with health authorities to investigate the Tyno toxic cough syrup incident in 2012 which killed more than 50 people in Punjab

Group photo of WHO mission staff investigating the Tyno toxic cough syrup incident in Punjab

Participants of the essential medicine strategic workshop

Brionary healtakeitiative of the Poople's

Grology placetor Difapraspliciptatististake Kazathe Bigistics support system training at Sindh Institute of

DdAratokayo~

with the state of the state of Essential medicine staff briefing other staff on the logistic support system in Quetta

Essential medicines team checking medicine at a warehouse in Quetta

Essential medicines team checking medicine boxes at a warehouse in Quetta distiniting on rational use of medicines and the logistic support system in Ziarat and Harnai

The training lasted two days and took place at the District Health Officer's office

Aiscesting pensicentie an Wissuesama pissaible the Dietrist Health Officer in Lafferahad Sindh to

Batozetistan,etoveiscube Kelyl Oisthiat mealth assulescabis picts situal to Officer in Naccon

Distri MH Cepulquianaeistidi Ziausse Salechicister consumption and checks the available stock at the machomecopsessiecise atespolialing tea a plort in Pichin Balochistan, briefing the health team on

The pharmacist gives guidance on donated medicines to the pharmacist of the TB

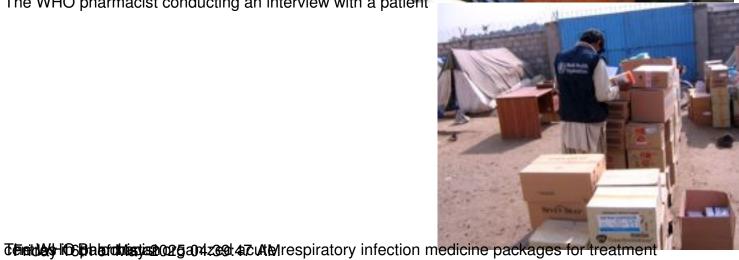

The WHO pharmacist, responding to an alert in Pishin, Balochistan, meeting with patients

WHO pharmacist conducting an outpatient interview Ine

The WHO pharmacist conducting an interview with a patient

7/7