

25 October, 2015 | Beirut – Despite continuing conflict, declining immunization rates in conflict-affected areas and mass population displacement, no new polio cases have been reported in the Middle East for over 18 months, and experts believe the extensive multi-country outbreak response has been effective in stopping the outbreak.

Read the full story

Related links

Polio Eradication Initiative

{loadposition polio-day-2015} World Polio Day 2015

Monday 6th of May 2024 01:15:58 PM