

A video featuring Ms Zardari and other guests speaking about their civil role in fighting to end polio New York Central Park, 29 September 2012 – Civil society brought together top artists with an audience of 60 000 in a concert to catalyse further action to end polio.

During this festival Ms Assifa Bhutto Zardari, daughter of President Asif Ali Zardari and Pakistan Goodwill Ambassador for Polio Eradication, was one of the key speakers. Ms Zardari announced taking the lead to ensure that every Pakistani child is protected against polio and asked global fellow citizens to join her in this fight and make history.

Saturday 17th of May 2025 10:11:30 PM