Between 24 November and 6 December 2019, an integrated campaign for vitamin A, deworming, measles and polio vaccination was conducted, reaching over 800,000 children under 5 years of age.

An upsurge of chikungunya fever was reported in the Togdheer region of Somaliland, affecting 389 people from September 2019.

The diseases causing the highest morbidity were acute respiratory infections (33,278 cases) and acute diarrhoea (22,507 cases).

Active cholera transmission is currently reported in Banadir region only. In 2019 a total of 2594 cholera cases and 2 deaths were reported.

A total of 466 new trauma cases were reported from referral hospitals, including 98 children under 5 years of age.
Related reports

Situation report, October 2019

Situation report, September 2019

Situation report, August 2019

Situation report, July 2019

Situation report, June 2019

Situation report, May 2019

Situation report, April 2019

Situation report, March 2019

Wednesday 25th of December 2019 03:33:46 PM