

WHO supports the Ministry of Health in all the components of health system strengthening including:

□ human resources development through training within and outside South Sudan capacity-building of the pharmaceutical department policy formulation, planning and management biomedical information

emergency humanitarian action laboratory systems strengthening. □

The Organization also contributes to rehabilitation, maintenance and capacity-building in local hospitals and laboratories.

Thursday 2nd of May 2024 04:06:31 AM