

An intercountry workshop on operational research methods and proposal development in communicable diseases was held from 8 to 13 October 2011 in Sharm El Sheikh, Egypt. The objective of the workshop was to develop protocols to address challenges in disease control and strengthen research capacity of national disease control programmes in the WHO Eastern Mediterranean Region.

The Regional Office continuously provides training for researchers in countries of the Eastern Mediterranean Region. Photo credit: WHO

Documents for download

Workshop Agenda | Download PDF [128 KB, 3 pages]

Saturday 20th of April 2024 12:29:37 PM