

The following is a list of in-country missions that the Health Systems in Emergency programme has organized or participated in to support health systems in emergency-affected countries in the Eastern Mediterranean Region.

2022

Afghanistan - Development of health system transitional strategy

Afghanistan - Support to health systems and service delivery programmes

Iraq – Universal Health and Preparedness Review

Qatar - Meeting on interim priorities for the health sector in Afghanistan

Syria - Consultation on public health priorities in Syria within early recovery and resilience framing

Switzerland – Consultation on assessing and measuring health system resilience in shocks

Turkey - High level meeting on migration health organized by the WHO Regional Office for Europe

United Arab Emirates - Consultation on the future of the health engagement in Afghanistan organized by the World Bank

2021

Jordan – Review of migration health programmes at the WHO country office and Ministry of Health

Jordan – Second global school on migration health

Yemen - Functional review of the WHO country office

2020

Afghanistan - Functional review of the WHO country office

Syria - Technical cooperation on health system recovery agenda

2019

Djibouti - Floods post-disaster needs assessment

Islamic Republic of Iran - Technical cooperation with the presidential-appointed Special Reporting Committee on Floods

Islamic Republic of Iran - Floods post-disaster needs assessment

Jordan - Consultation on health system assessment in Yemen

Oman - Monitoring of the implementation of the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction

Qatar - Consultation on quality of health care and patient safety in extreme adversity settings

Sudan - Public health assessment of refugees and migrants

Switzerland – Retreat of Joint Working Team on Universal Health Coverage

France - Consultation on revision of minimum service package in Yemen

United Arab Emirates - Regional training course on health system strengthening, in collaboration with Harvard University

2018

Somalia - Public health assessment of refugees and migrants

Saturday 18th of May 2024 11:36:45 AM