

WHO encourages ministries of health and other stakeholders to share their experiences in designing, developing and delivering priority benefits packages.

The Regional Office is establishing a virtual network of all stakeholders to:

share practical lessons learned, including successes and failures;

highlight challenges;

build capacities.

Saturday 20th of April 2024 01:48:32 PM