

A regional training workshop on vaccines store management took place in Alexandria, Egypt between 26 November- 1 December 2011 to update the participants on the new techniques in vaccine management that will enable them to adjust their national policies; train the participants on the correct procedures of the cold chain and vaccine management systems; and provide hands- on training in critical and important aspects of vaccine management.

A regional training workshop on vaccines store management, 26 November-01 December 2011
[pdf 00kb]

Wednesday 1st of May 2024 05:00:20 AM