

School children between the ages of 8 and 18 in the Eastern Mediterranean Region were encouraged to submit drawings or paintings around the 2012 World Health Day theme of aging and health. More than 1000 children from 14 countries in the Region entered the competition, and prizes were awarded to winners in 5 age groups (8–9, 10–11, 12–13, 14–15 and 16–18).
