

This year's overall message is one of urgency and shared responsibility. The main focus is on advocating for the fact that only through unified action on all levels, will we have the power to reach a wider audience, to overcome the challenges facing us and eventually put an end to the suffering from tuberculosis in the Region.

Thursday 25th of April 2024 04:36:23 PM