

In October 2007, the Regional Committee of the Eastern Mediterranean expressed concern at the burden imposed by neglected tropical diseases. The Regional Committee issued resolution EM/RC54/R.3 to give priority to the control of neglected tropical diseases, to scale up prevention and control and to strengthen partnerships at global, regional and national level.

WHO was requested to provide technical support to Member States in developing targeted programmes, producing necessary guidelines and conducting operational research.

[Neglected tropical diseases: an emerging public health problem in the Eastern Mediterranean Region \[pdf 24kb\]](#)

[Main challenges in the control of zoonotic diseases in the Eastern Mediterranean Region \[pdf 21kb\]](#)

[Elimination of lymphatic filariasis in the Eastern Mediterranean Region \[pdf 14kb\]](#)

Saturday 17th of May 2025 03:01:27 PM