

Health systems recovery in fragile and conflict-affected situations in the Eastern Mediterranean Region

EM/RC72/7

Fragile and conflict-affected situations (FCS) in the Eastern Mediterranean Region

9 FCS in the Region according to the World Bank

Protracted
conflicts and low institutional capacity

Unstable
political and peace
conditions

Damaged
and overwhelmed
health systems

Prevented
progress towards the SDGs

Health systems recovery: a complex and non-linear process

Restoring

disrupted health services

Rebuilding

health system components and essential public health functions

Build-back-better

through policy reform, disaster risk reduction, better service coverage, and regional flagship initiatives

Institutionalizing a health systems recovery agenda

Member States' consultation

Key feedback and outcomes

Focus on operationalization

Ensure
involvement of national and local actors

Promote
cross-sectoral engagement

Foster
engagement with private sector

Address
social cohesion and conflict prevention

Health systems recovery initiatives in the Eastern Mediterranean Region

Examples in the Region

Proposed resolution EM/RC72/R.3

URGES the Regional Director to:

Provide

technical support to countries for health systems recovery

Operationalize

a regional platform for health systems recovery

Facilitate

implementation of the Nexus approach for an effective transition

Facilitate

resource mobilization and partnerships for recovery

Proposed resolution EM/RC72/R.3

URGES Member States to:

Institutionalize

recovery readiness
in preparedness efforts

Consider

financial support in accordance with national context

Employ

Nexus approach
in aid assistance

Formulate

strategies and plans for effective recovery

Strengthen

capacities of ministry of health and relevant stakeholders

Strengthen

capacities and participation of affected communities