Theory of Change

STRUCTURES AND INPUTS PROCESSES OUTPUTS Systems for improving Governance quality of care Political commitment & leadership Governance & policy frameworks • Engagement with communities & multi-sectoral stakeholders • Engagement with private sector providers Access & availability · Accessibility, affordability, acceptability • Service availability and readiness Financing Utilization of services Funding & allocation of resources Purchasing & payment systems Model of care Quality care First contact accessibility management of services Continuity Management of population Comprehensiveness Coordination Resources People-centredness Health workforce Effectiveness Physical infrastructure Safety Medicines & other health products

PUTS OUTCOMES

UHC (service coverage & financial protection)

&

Health security

Health information & digital technologies for health

- Information systems
- Surveillance

Financial protection

Resilient health facilities &

services