

Yemen Situation Overview

Eight years of armed violence, a deteriorated economy, and disruption of services have left millions of Yemenis vulnerable, prone to life-threatening risks, and in urgent need of humanitarian support.

Inter-Cluster People in Need

20.3 million

People need urgent health services – 12.9 million are in acute need

17.3 million

people suffer from acute food insecurity

15.3 million

people cannot access clean water and sanitation without assistance

2.2 million

children under age 5 suffer from all forms of malnutrition

500,000

children under age 5 suffer from severe acute malnutrition with a direct risk of death

4,659

suspected cholera cases and 7 deaths (as of 22 July)

39%

of health facilities are partially functional, and 7% are non-functional

29%

of functioning hospitals are without specialist doctors